Dear Harold,

Thanks for your note and assistance.

1. Any additional information you have on Crawford would be useful. Powers has been adamant for 20 years that the arrest was in his place, following his phone call and by plain clothes detectives. The arrest of Crawford might thus be a cover.

2. I may be misinterpreting Jensen's statement.

3. I would appreciate Jamie continuing at his end on additional work. I would also be interested in involving any of her student colleagues who are interested in law or legal research, for this
